

I listen to K-LOVE each morning and evening on my commute to/from work. It helps me get through each day by keeping my mind focused on Christ. I also have it on at home during the weekend. So much of what comes over the air is offensive and stupid. I would greatly miss K-LOVE if it were to be displaced.